Our designated ClaimPlus handling teams focus solely on serving our largest customers and deliver a claims service experience tailored to your business needs. They manage everyday construction claims services – in consultation with our most expert adjusters when claims complexity warrants it.

Our Latent Property Damage Group is dedicated to managing construction defect claims and the complex contractual issues surrounding them. These claims professionals specialize in regional jurisdictions and are supported by a legal team that consults on complex cases and helps deliver an optimal defense.

The Major Case Team leverages our most skillful and experienced adjusters for the most severe injuries, such as brain, spinal and burn.

- For bodily injury claims, our adjusters are experienced in the complex liabilities and contractual issues that can arise with complex construction claims and litigation.
- On workers' compensation claims, our adjusters work with on-site nurse case managers and prestigious medical centers around the country that provide specialized care.

Our Rapid Response Model engages professionals in our special investigations unit when catastrophic claims occur. They get to the accident scene within hours to conduct on-site investigations and preserve evidence to ensure we get the right facts and the right results.
