

LOSS-SENSITIVE PROGRAM FOR LARGE CONTRACTORS

INDUSTRY-LEADING SERVICE EXCELLENCE IS PART OF EVERY PROGRAM.

WHAT'S A LOSS-SENSITIVE PROGRAM?

It's a form of insurance that allows you to pay a lower upfront premium. You pay "dollar one" up to a set limit because your business will actually participate in loss payment, up to a retention that is agreed upon between you and The Hartford. As losses occur, the insurer:

- Pays the claim
- Bills you for the loss amount, plus service fees for losses within the retained layer

HOW IT WORKS

The Hartford:

- Analyzes your past losses
- Identifies loss trends
- Calculates your expected losses for next year
- Negotiates a per-loss retention to cover expected losses
- Negotiates a premium
- Settles all claims as usual

You:

- Periodically pay for losses and claim-handling expenses, up to the deductible limits
